

WEEK 1

DISCUSSION GUIDE

Our relationships with our families can sometimes feel a little bit like a way-too-competitive game night. With our families, sometimes it's fun . . . but other times, we might fight for first place, gang up on each other, betray each other, and walk away with frustration and hurt feelings. Families can be sources of joy and laughter but also stress and tension. But what if our families could be places where we could all help each other win? In this four-week series from the New Testament, we'll look at how the earliest followers of Jesus created a new kind of community as God's family. Through their example, we'll learn that there is enough when we share what we have — and if there isn't enough, God provides. We'll also learn that our actions can speak when words aren't enough and that God's love is always enough.

THIS WEEK

BIG IDEA

There is enough when we share what we have.

BIBLE

Acts 4:32–35; 2 Corinthians 9:6–8; Ezekiel 33:31

- What is your favorite board game?
- Is doing things as a family together common for you? What kind of things do you do?
- How would you describe your relationship with your family?
- What's something in Acts 4:32-35 that surprised you?
- What do you think about the idea that in God's family, everyone should have what they need?
- How does it make you feel when you hear Scripture ask us to share what we have?
- What is something you don't think you have enough of and feel comfortable being honest about?
- What is one thing you noticed that your family could use some help with this week?
- What can you do if you feel like you are continually sharing, but no one else sharing with you?
- Read Ezekiel 33:31. How will you share what you have to help others have enough?
